TRAINERS

Dev Suroop Kaur, E-RYT, LEAD TRAINER

has immersed herself in Kundalini Yoga and the sound current since 1983, recording transformational music and become a KRI Certified Kundalini Yoga Lead Teacher Trainer. Yogi Bhajan recognized the penetrating and healing power of her voice and directly trained her in Naad Yoga techniques, to more deeply access the power and depth of her voice and teach that to others. He also guided her as a business executive, always demanding that she settle for nothing less than excellence. This direct training in her professional and music endeavors has endured in a more subtle, yet even more powerful, way since that time.
